

New England Meets New York...

THE PERFECTLY UNIQUE BLEND OF 2 WORLDS

HOW LA PIÈCE BECAME SO MUCH MORE THAN A ROOM

Anna Yasharian, founder and the Executif Gala Créateur of La Pièce -The Room, along with her 15 years of design and planning knowledge are the engine behind the concept that has come to be this unique private venue.

Having designed, created and successfully executed events in a variety of venues: from New York City to Connecticut and throughout New Hampshire, helped her to uncover the good, the bad and the ugly. Venue restrictions, lack of flow and tacky venue amenities that limit design possibilities were a few of the negatives she wanted to eliminate when conceptualizing the venue she would lead, the Room.

New England meets New York... this was her inspiration while on the search for the perfect location. The lovely Riverfront Mill had so many beautiful historical features that she knew would come to life with the addition of the appropriate chic updates. La Pièce embodies the warm New England character with the chic metropolitan style of NYC, the beautiful blending of Anna's two loves.

Y

ou have the engagement ring, you are narrowing down the date, now the search for the perfect venue is on! Where do you start? What do you look for in a place that will be hosting one of the most significant moments in your lives?

The search is over!

La Pièce knows that every couple is unique, with one common thread, everyone wants their Big Day to be perfect in every way. Providing options for optimal design and organization, while eliminating areas that create stress and confusion, is the philosophy that drives everything we do for you. Thoughtful amenities and services are a staple of the Room. What do we offer that makes us unique to other venues?

An inviting, chic setting accompanied by the support of an entire team that has dedicated attention to all of the behind-the-scenes details... this and more is what makes La Pièce so much more than a Room.