DINING LODGE FACILITY INFORMATION

History of the Dining Lodge

The Union Pacific Railroad hired architect Gilbert Stanley Underwood to design this dining facility for train passengers visiting Yellowstone National Park by way of West Yellowstone, MT. Underwood was known for his rustic-style architecture, defined as a style that uses native materials in proper scale, avoids rigid, straight lines, gives the feeling of having been crafted by pioneer craftsmen with limited tools, and achieves a connection to natural surroundings and to the past. Construction of the Dining Lodge was completed in 1925. Underwood also designed Yellowstone's Old Faithful Lodge, Yosemite's Ahwahnee Lodge, and Oregon's Timberline Lodge, among others.

Facility Layout

- Mammoth Room: 120' x 55', 6600 square feet, with large stone fireplace at west end. Maximum capacity is 400 people.
- Firehole Room: 30' x 55', 1650 square feet, with large stone fireplace on east end. Maximum capacity is 100 people.
- Kitchen: Equipped with large gas grills and ovens, preparation counters, two industrial fridges, industrial freezer, sinks, hot water heater, sanitizer, ice-maker, china and flatware.

GENERAL RENTAL INFORMATION

GENERAL REQUIREMENTS: Please read all of the information supplied in this packet. Then fill out the rental application and return it to the Yellowstone Historic Center, P.O. Box 1299, West Yellowstone, MT 59758. Once YHC has approved your rental application, you will receive your Event Term Sheet and Event Contract. Please carefully read all information on both documents. Failure to comply with all requirements could result in cancellation of reservations or refusal of entry to the Dining Lodge. Sign both documents and return within 14 days of paying security deposit to Yellowstone Historic Center, P.O. Box 1299, West Yellowstone, MT 59758.

PAYMENTS/INSURANCE FORMS/CATERING EVENT LICENSES: Please make out checks to: Yellowstone Historic Center. Please mail checks for security deposit, rent, and other fees and insurance forms to: Yellowstone Historic Center, P.O. Box 1299, West Yellowstone, MT 59758. We accept MasterCard, Visa, or Discover with an additional 2.5% processing fee.

CLEANING REQUIREMENTS: A copy of the cleaning requirements is included. In the case that YHC staff is required to assist with clean-up, the renter will pay a fee of $100 per hour for participation efforts or cost for professional to clean and/or make repairs, whichever is greater. The costs will be deducted from the security deposit. If costs exceed the amount of the security deposit, the Company will bill the renter for the remaining balance to cover the damage which must be paid in full to the Company within thirty (30) days.

INSURANCE: You are required to purchase a commercial general liability insurance policy for $1,500,000 in aggregate and $750,000 per occurrence to cover the dates of your event. The policy should cover damage to the Dining Lodge, medical expenses, and personal injury and list the Town of West Yellowstone and the Yellowstone Historic Center as additional insureds. Insurance can be obtained at www.EventHelper.org or from your auto/home/renter's insurance provider.

CONDITION OF THE BUILDING: Upon arrival, the Venue Manager, or designated personnel, will conduct a walk-through of premises in order to familiarize you with the building as well as take note of any previous damages to the property (i.e. gas leaks, water leaks, etc.) or available items (i.e. tables, chairs, kitchenware, etc.)

KEYS: When you arrive in West Yellowstone, keys to the Union Pacific Dining Lodge may be obtained from the Yellowstone Historic Center. This office is located in the Dining Lodge at 220 Yellowstone Avenue. Once the walk-through is complete, keys will be signed out to you. Once the event is complete, you will turn the keys in during the check-out walk-through. Loss of the keys will result in a $250.00 replacement fee per key which will be deducted from your security deposit.

DECORATIONS: All plans for decorations and displays must be approved by the Venue Manager one (1) month prior to the event. Nails, tacks or any other permanent adhesives on the walls, ceilings, columns, or windows are prohibited. Existing wall décor cannot be removed or altered in any way. Decorations may not block doors, fire extinguishers, exits, or heating systems. Open flames (including candles) are not allowed. Adhesive backed decals or stickers are prohibited and may not be distributed anywhere on the premises. Glitter, confetti, rice, sparklers, etc. are also prohibited.

FIREPLACES: You may use the fireplaces, but you must supply your own wood and clean out and safely dispose of the ashes afterwards. The Yellowstone Historic Center requires that a staff person lights all fires to ensure that they are drawing into the chimney correctly. You must notify the Venue Manager that you would like a fire no later than one month before the event to ensure that staff is available to assist you. Once a fire is lit, there must be a designated individual on the premises at all times to tend to the fire. If a fire is left unattended for any length of time, YHC withholds the right to cancel the event and retain renter's full security deposit. Recent changes to the Montana Fire Code now preclude the use of any kind of propane heater within the confines of the Dining Lodge.

FIRE: The Union Pacific Dining Lodge is an historic building constructed long before the advent of modern fire suppression systems. It is built primarily of wood. If the fire alarm sounds, vacate the building IMMEDIATELY! Do not attempt to locate the cause for the alarm. Emergency units will be on the scene in minutes to professionally deal with the situation.

CATERING/SPECIAL EVENT LICENSES: Any event open to the public serving food must have a "Temporary Event License" prior to the scheduled event. A Temporary Event License can be obtained through the Gallatin County Health Department at 406-582-3120. Any event collecting monies must obtain an Event Permit and possibly a "Business License." Please contact the Town Office at 406- 646-7795 to determine if a business license is required.

CLEANING REQUIREMENTS

The Union Pacific Dining Lodge contracts with a company to clean the venue following each event. The following are the cleaning-up responsibilities of the renter prior to check-out.

Rental Space: Any furniture that was moved before or during the event must be placed back in its original location. Any loose debris must be picked up and disposed of in a lined trash receptacle.

Restrooms: All loose debris must be picked up and disposed of in a lined trash receptacle. Toilet tissue and paper towels lying on the floor must be picked up and put in trash containers.

Fireplace: Any unused logs or kindling brought on the premises must be removed. Fire must be “dead out” meaning that ash and debris must be cool to the touch.

Table and Chairs: If you set up tables and chairs for your event, you must take them down and stack them neatly where you found them. Report any damage to tables to the Venue Manager. If you use the tables for your event, wipe them down. There should be no sticky substances or food stuck to the tables when you leave. Stack chairs in the racks provided before you leave. Pick up any large debris and sweep all the floors.

Kitchen: Stoves, ranges, and grease traps must be clean and absent of any food or grease. Any spills on the floor must be mopped up. Any YHC owned dishes, utensils, and so forth need to be cleaned, run through the sanitizer, dried, and returned to their proper storage areas. Floors must be free of debris. Freezer and refrigerators must be empty. All garbage must be placed in a lined trash receptacle.

Cleaning supplies: Cleaning supplies and equipment will be provided. Supplies will include: dust mops, floor brooms, small brooms and dust pans, buckets, mops and various cleaning solutions. A supply of large garbage bags will also be provided. The building will be inspected by staff before and after each event. An inventory of cleaning equipment will be taken and the cost of missing equipment will be deducted from the renter's security deposit.

Noncompliance with any of the above stipulations will result in a deduction from your deposit. If any of these criteria are unmet following check-out, the Yellowstone Historic Center charges a fee of $100 per hour or the cost for a professional to clean and/or make repairs. The costs will be deducted from the security deposit. If costs exceed the amount of the security deposit, the Company will bill the renter for the remaining balance to cover the damage which must be paid in full to the Company within thirty (30) days.

Adherence to these requirements helps assure all renters of the Union Pacific Dining Lodge are being treated in a fair and equitable manner. Your compliance is appreciated by the Yellowstone Historic Center as well as subsequent users of the facility.

Walk-Throughs: A walk-through with a Yellowstone Historic Center Event Supervisor and the renter (or chosen party) will be performed prior to and following the event. These walk-throughs will be conducted at promptly 12:00 PM unless otherwise specified by the Venue Manager. Unless unforeseen circumstances arise, YHC requires that those present for check-in are also present for check-out. It is the responsibility of the renter to stay on the premises until a check-out walk-through is performed.

During the check-in walk-through, renter and Event Supervisor will walk-through the venue to agree on the state of building prior to the event. Once all parties agree and sign the check-in checklist, the keys will be signed out to the renter.

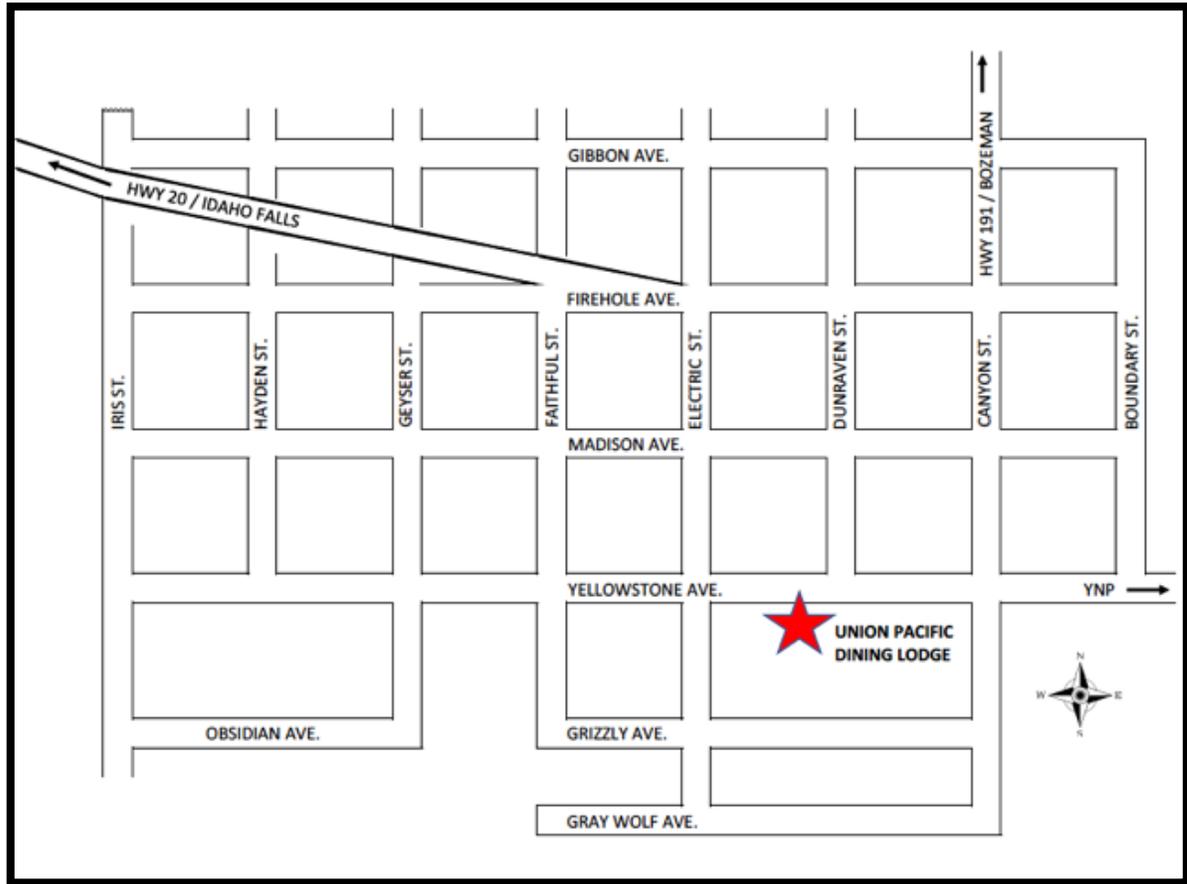

During the check-out walk-through, renter and Event Supervisor will walk-through the venue to ensure that all cleaning requirements have been met and there are no new damages to the building. Keys to the building will be returned to the Event Supervisor at this time. If, during the final walk-through or at any point after the event and before the next event, any damages are discovered, all or part of your security deposit will be withheld at the discretion of the YHC.
