Property History

The Anderson family came to Waukomis, OK in the early 1900's and purchased a farm just west of town. Grandpa Frederick Anderson brought his "mail order" bride Fannie to the farmhouse he built that is still standing! Richard Anderson, owner and creator of Buffalo Junction was one of Frederick & Fannie's grandsons. Richard met and married his bride Mo (Imozelle Gregg) at Waukomis High School. They both succeeded in business and in the real estate market. Richard and Mo love their hometown and built Buffalo Junction & Buffalo Point to bring beauty, business and employment to Waukomis. The Chapel of Joy was designed to resemble a Chapel from days gone by. The Old Trinity of Paseo Chapel in the popular Oklahoma City Paseo district was part of the inspiration for our design.
