Caterer Guidelines:

Outside caterers must be approved through your Drury Lane Event Representative. Failure to comply may result in an additional surcharge added to your final invoice.

All outside caterers must provide proof of insurance at least 30 days prior to your event. In addition, at least 30 days prior to the event date, the caterer must meet with Drury Lane to discuss kitchen needs, event timing, and general policies.

On the day of the event, the outside caterer is responsible to provide:

IF EVENT IS BUFFET STYLE:

- Sternos (for hot boxes and buffet lines)
- Stock Pots and Paddles (to heat up food)
- Serving Bowls and Dishes
- Mirrors and/or Trays for Buffet Tables
- Labels for Food Items
- Staff to Replenish Buffet Lines

IF EVENT IS FAMILY STYLE:

- Serving Dishes for Guest Tables
- Serving Utensils for Guest Tables
- Sternos (for hot boxes)
- Staff to Serve Food

It is the outside catering company's responsibility to arrive at Drury Lane fully prepared. Drury Lane is not responsible for providing any kitchen utensils to the outside caterer.

Linens:

Drury Lane will dress the guest tables with floor length white cloths and white napkins. Upgraded linens are available through your Drury Lane Event Representative. Additional fees will apply. Please note that Drury Lane does not permit linens from any outside companies.

Decorations:

For evening functions, set up may begin as early as 4:00 pm. Following the event, the decorator will have two hours to break down their decorations and vacate the facility.

Audio-Visual:

Audio-visual and lighting equipment and services are available through Drury Lane's in-house provider, Midwest Conference Services. Please contact MCS directly at 630-570-7282 for event-specific details. Should you wish to bring in outside audio-visual and/or lighting, please discuss with your Drury Lane Event Representative.
