

THE MAKER'S SON

LOS ALAMOS, CALIFORNIA

NESTLED IN THE HEART OF THE PURISMA HILLS IN SANTA BARBARA WINE COUNTRY lies the historic, rugged town of Los Alamos. Once a popular stagecoach and Pacific Coast Railway stop in the late 1800's, "Little L.A." is now home to world class restaurants, wine tasting rooms, antique shops, art galleries and chic hotels. Known for its laid back atmosphere, outstanding weather and old western feel, Los Alamos is the premier destination for a relaxing wine country getaway or for any special occasion.

Location, location, location...

Conveniently located off California's scenic 101 Highway and just 45 miles north from the Santa Barbara airport, your gateway to adventure in wine country is closer than you think.

C reate an unforgettable experience.

Featuring beautifully landscaped grounds, open and airy patios, rugged stone fire pits and a beautifully restored 1920's auto garage with classic open-truss vaulted ceilings, The Maker's Son boasts several unique settings for all of life's special occasions.

For parties intimate to large, day or evening, we've got you covered. Enjoy passed appetizers and cocktails while lounging on our plush outdoor furniture or a multi-course dinner under the stars, seated at one of our classic farm style dining tables with cross-backed chairs.

Enjoy elevated comfort food menus developed by our Taste Maker, Executive Chef Matthew Wheeler. Before opening The Maker's Son, Matthew spent more than 15 years at many of the Central Coast's top restaurants as a working chef. Matthew's dishes are locally inspired with regionally sourced meats, fish, and produce, but globally infused with unique ingredients and flavor profiles. Matthew's extensive in-house private dining options offer something for every guest.

Providing a hassle-free and turn-key event experience, The Maker's Son has thoughtfully curated a quality collection of dish ware, stemware, silverware and linens that are both sophisticated, yet reflect the unique and classic character of our venue. It is all about the details at The Maker's Son..."

Give them something to talk about!

Turn up the "Wow" factor at your next private gathering by taking advantage of one of our unique and all-inclusive private event packages. Base venue fees start as low as $1,500, and may vary based upon party size, day of week, event time and venue area. The Maker's Son has numerous venue options that can accommodate intimate gatherings for as few as 25 guests to large-scale productions boasting more than 300 visitors.

Appetizer and dining options range from the simple to the extravagant where guests may enjoy a variety of unique food choices. The Maker's Son offers both hosted and non-hosted bar packages, including signature cocktails, beer, wine and spirits.

"WHENEVER A MAKER AND A THINKER GET TOGETHER, REALLY COOL STUFF HAPPENS."

-MAX MCKEOWN

To learn more about hosting a private event at The Maker's Son, contact our Event Maker, Selina De La Cruz at selinad@themakersson.com

We look forward to making your event spectacular!

Let's be social! Connect with us @themakersson

