

Two together in Texas

*Looking for better ways to communicate with the person you love?
Are you interested in having a strong, healthy relationship?*

Twogether in Texas is here to help.

Visit TwogetherinTexas.com to find instructors across the state that serve couples seeking pre-marital education. Courses are available as workshops or individual sessions and will help you develop skills in:

- Communication
- Effective listening
- Problem solving
- Conflict resolution
- Goal setting
- Building good relationships with family and children

Completing a course with an approved Twogether in Texas instructor will reduce your marriage license fee by $60 and waive the 72-hour waiting period.

By discussing communication styles and expectations before marriage, you and your loved one can better understand and support each other in marriage.
